Art, architecture, fashion and furniture all draw upon the principles of design—where a simple curve or nuanced form sets a mood.

IN LIVING COLOR

We are proud to introduce one of our most beloved designers and long-time friend, Keia McSwain, Owner and Principal Designer of Kimberly & Cameron Interiors, based in Denver, Colorado.

When not transforming interiors with incredible creativity and mind-blowing colors, this tastemaker turned activist presides over the Black Interior Designers Network (BIDN). As President, she pushes to diversify the design world, highlight the work of the network's 200 talented designers and, most importantly, create an inclusive community for them.

We are excited to partner with Keia and BIDN to promote diversity and inclusion within the interior design industry by highlighting designers of color and supporting black designers with business development opportunities.

Scheduled to launch Spring 2021, follow us on social media to learn more about our strategic partnership and exciting programming. To join this important movement now, please visit: blackinteriordesignersnetwork.com
