AN EVOCATIVE BALANCE OF

MATERIAL & FORM

VOLUME 14, ISSUE 1

This season's collection conveys an evocative balance of material and form, centered around our passion to bring elegance and hope to the world through sensory living experiences. A seamless integration of tonal, sculptural and contrasting elements adds emphasis and a harmonious aesthetic. Within these pages, access exclusive content and interviews with our designer collective to further inspire and bring the collection to life.

TONAL

Muted hues and soft contrast create a calming composition, with an emphasis on simple forms and a refined use of materials. Inherently welcoming, organic textures add warmth and engage the senses.

A contrasting leather panel outback adds depth and a touch of the unexpected.

An elegant expression of materiality and form, a subtle contrast of tone and texture brings a fresh aesthetic to dining interiors.

The Unity light dining table celebrates a simple yet intentional use of organic materials, with a pillar-style base punctuated by hand-carved fluted details in a mix of Sun Drenched Oak and open pore travertine stone. Style as a small pedestal table for an intimate dining experience, or expand with one or two leaves for a larger gathering of guests.

A repetition of design elements creates a sense of movement and visual rhythm. Architectural arches and rounded edges soften linear forms, with supple leather and bronze metal mixed in for added warmth.

With its intricate banding and inherent color variations, sandstone tells a story of wind and water, and the slow accumulation of sediment and minerals. Whether smooth and polished, or cut and pieced for a faceted look, its natural tones and texture lend an organic aesthetic that seamlessly blends with our collection. A luxe yet durable addition to any interior, sandstone speaks to the timeless beauty brought forth by time and the elements.

An exquisite etching of earth tones and texture, sandstone makes a storied statement.

SANDSTONE

MAPPA BURL

Prized for its uniqueness and dramatic interplay of light and dark tones, mappa burl brings a hint of glam and an art deco element. Its intricate wood grain patterns come from burls or knots that form on European poplar trees as a healing response to injury or stress. A story of perseverance and beauty that can only be found in nature, this iconic material adds warmth and rich character to classic forms.

Every design is an art piece, masterfully crafted to maximize intrigue and tactile appeal.

Simple yet elegant with an emphasis on function, sleek forms are elevated by sumptuous materials.

Klismos-inspired shapes in a distressed ivory velvet let you create a softly sophisticated space for entertaining and conversation. A curved end table in a mix of White Rhino stone and a Whisper of Gold adds depth and reflection to seating areas, grounded by a dually functional cocktail table.

A celebration of material and purity in form, intricate details and welcoming shapes evoke organic beauty and inspiration found in nature. The Soft Embrace bed introduces a soft neutral hue to bedroom interiors that pairs well with our Simply Perfect nightstand and dresser, wrapped in an ivory-painted, pieced faux shagreen for subtle texture and a note of luxe. With the look of coral branches reaching toward the light, the Glimmer of Hope chair adds interest and a modern opulence.

Like a finely tailored garment, details and texture bring a look together, from a petite seat with a dressmaker skirt, cinched together by Brushed Gold metal brackets, to an elegant desk with a Rum Raisin-painted interior, and a sleek chest, wrapped in a metallic charcoal paper that emulates eel skin.

“Dream Chaser is an exquisite mix of materials, united by contemporary, clean lines with a hint of brutalism.”

VOICE OF
DESIGN
featuring Annina Fremgen

According to Annina Fremgen, Caracole's Lead Designer, when it comes to materials, the key is balance. Materials should tie the room together, without being too overpowering, while still being interesting and elevating. In a recent interview, Annina shared the inspiration behind her designs, as well as her favorite piece and why she loves it.

Rich in material, yet restrained in form, the Dream Chaser collection lends an understated balance of opulence and simplicity. Luxurious fabrics are warmly complemented by a shimmering metallic leaf finish and distinct details, like faux leather cinch straps and a uniquely designed metal rod skirt that introduces a gentle wave pattern.

Clean lines and simple forms age timelessly, allowing details and materials to shine.

Intricate details add emphasis to a refined mix of materials, making a statement of sophistication.

Inspired by Frank Lloyd Wright's Fallingwater home, clean-lined silhouettes invite calm and repose.

Architectural designs are beautifully balanced by a soothing ecru-colored fabric and soft-to-touch, vinyl-wrapped drawer fronts. A mix of creamy travertine stone, Silver Platano veneers and Lucent Bronze metal adds warmth and subtle contrast to calming, clean-lined forms.

TRAVERTINE

Honed and tranquil or visually impactful, travertine stone exemplifies the art of materiality.

Left in its natural state, or filled and polished until smooth, travertine stone embodies an organic elegance. Crème travertine lends a refined aesthetic, with exquisite veining and a light, neutral tone for contrast that can be subtle or striking. With its nooks and crags, unfilled travertine is highly textured and more rustic, while open pore travertine introduces an architectural element, much like the classic, carved appearance of silver travertine.

CONTRAST

For high impact interiors, make use of opposing elements to create depth and visual interest. A classic contrast of light and dark finishes adds drama, punctuated by a mix of distinctly different textures and materials that bring balance and a bold yet elegant style aesthetic.

“The mix of materials is couture-level, with sumptuous fabrics and details that add an extra level of sophistication.”

VOICE OF
featuring Ryan Saghian

An emerging, prominent talent, LA-based interior designer Ryan Saghian describes his style as bold, eclectic and high contrast with global references. His daring design approach is evident in the Modern Principles collaboration with Caracole, which features neutral tones and earthy materials, along with Ryan's signature contrast of raw and refined. In a recent interview, Ryan shares how this collection speaks to his favorite architectural elements and what makes it so versatile.

Inspired by the principles of design, a raw yet refined use of materials creates balance and a sense of modernity, contrasted by an interplay of light and dark finishes. Sleek curves give the impression of movement, while a striking symmetry of form, together with a light-toned palette of fabrics, holds the collection together in harmonious unity.

Eye-catching details and contrasting finishes create depth and add emphasis.

KELLY HOPPEN

caracole

Exclusive to Caracole, this master class ensemble conceived by design icon Kelly Hoppen celebrates modern simplicity through organic, sculptural forms that embody chic and comfortable living. Each piece is designed to work harmoniously as a collective or individually as the star of a space, blending textures and materials to add layers of sensory depth.

SCULPTURAL

Taking inspiration from forms found in nature, fluid lines and sculptural shapes create movement and a sense of serenity. Like a work of art, each piece makes a statement, elevating function and everyday living. Curves invite comfort, balancing a modern aesthetic that brings a gallery-like feel to living, dining, and bedroom interiors.

VOICE OF

featuring Kelly Hoppen

For award-winning designer Kelly Hoppen, compelling design is about balance and harmony. While her design philosophy has evolved throughout the years, Hoppen says there is always that essence of finding pieces that can stand alone, or blend together. In a recent interview, Kelly shares design advice and what she loves about the House of Hoppen collection.
